1. Characters

John Proctor

- "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life!" (Act IV)
  - Relevance: Proctor's cry as he refuses to sign a false confession highlights his desire to preserve his integrity, even at the cost of his life.
  - Significance: This moment completes Proctor's redemption arc and underscores the theme of personal honour and truth.
- "We are what we always were, but naked now." (Act II)
  - Relevance: Proctor reflects on how the hysteria in Salem has exposed the true nature of people's characters.
  - Significance: This line reveals Proctor's disillusionment with the moral decay of his community.

Abigail Williams

- "Let either of you breathe a word, or the edge of a word, about the other things, and I will bring a pointy reckoning that will shudder you." (Act I)
  - Relevance: Abigail's threat to the other girls reveals her manipulative and violent nature.
  - Significance: It sets the tone for Abigail's control over the events in Salem and foreshadows the chaos she will cause.
- "She is blackening my name in the village! She is telling lies about me!" (Act I)
  - Relevance: Abigail's complaint about Elizabeth Proctor highlights her vindictive and self-serving personality.
  - Significance: This line reflects Abigail's motivation to target Elizabeth, stemming from her obsession with John Proctor.

Elizabeth Proctor

- "The magistrate sits in your heart that judges you." (Act II)

- Relevance: Elizabeth points out that Proctor's guilt over his affair is his own burden to bear.
  - Significance: This quote reveals Elizabeth's perceptiveness and sets the stage for Proctor's internal struggle.
  - "He have his goodness now. God forbid I take it from him." (Act IV)
    - Relevance: Elizabeth's final words reflect her acceptance of Proctor's choice to die with integrity.
    - Significance: This moment encapsulates Elizabeth's understanding of personal honour and redemption.

2. Themes

Hysteria

- "We burn a hot fire here; it melts down all concealment." (Danforth, Act III)
  - Relevance: Danforth's statement captures the intensity of the trials and their supposed purpose to uncover hidden truths.
  - Significance: The quote ironically highlights the destructive power of hysteria, as the trials instead amplify lies and fear.
- "The Devil is alive in Salem, and we dare not quail to follow wherever the accusing finger points!" (Hale, Act II)
  - Relevance: Hale's early support of the trials reflects the overwhelming fear driving the hysteria in Salem.
  - Significance: This line illustrates how fear of the unknown can lead to irrational actions and injustice.

Integrity and Reputation

- "A man will not cast away his good name. You surely know that." (Proctor, Act III)
    - Relevance: Proctor defends his decision to confess his affair, prioritising truth over reputation.
    - Significance: The line encapsulates the tension between public image and personal integrity.
  - "I have given you my soul; leave me my name!" (Proctor, Act IV)
    - Relevance: Proctor's plea to preserve his name reflects his ultimate decision to prioritise honour over survival.
    - Significance: This quote underscores the theme of personal redemption and the value of truth.

3. Imagery or Symbols

Fire and Purification

- "We burn a hot fire here; it melts down all concealment." (Danforth, Act III)
  - Relevance: Fire is used metaphorically to suggest cleansing and exposure of hidden truths.

- Significance: Ironically, the trials create more lies and destruction, subverting the imagery of fire as purifying.

The Poppet

- “Why, this go hard with her, Proctor, this—I had my doubts, Proctor, I had my doubts.” (Cheever, Act II)
  - Relevance: The discovery of the poppet with a needle is used as false evidence against Elizabeth Proctor.
  - Significance: The poppet symbolises the manipulation and absurdity of the trials, where superstition replaces logic.

The Noose

- “I cannot mount the gibbet like a saint. It is a fraud. I am not that man.” (Proctor, Act IV)
  - Relevance: Proctor initially views the noose as a symbol of shame but later accepts it as a symbol of redemption.
  - Significance: The noose represents both the cost of integrity and the sacrifice required to uphold it.
